The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett The blow which knocked out Corbets was a reveiation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignorance. Dr. Pierce is bringing the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home, to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the price ring as well as in it. We protect bur heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the description of the price ring as well as in it. We protect bur heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the description of the solar piexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach cound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable snot. PALM SUNDAY.

Tomorrow will be Palm Sanday when churches will be filled with the fgraceful palm leaves. Members of congregations will carry home from service a cherished bit of raim with possibly no thought of where it was grown or how it came to the church from which it was obtained.
It is eald there will be scarcely enough palms to go around this year. The sup-ply has been far below the demand. The d fficulties in getting the leaves, as year after year the palm groves have been rided, are now so great that the negroes of the tropics have to undergo ong trips inland to find anything like the quantity wanted by the big wholessle

These particular palms are the Pal metto, and grow in Florica and the West Indies. It is the Palmetto that is blessed and distributed to the congrega tloos in parrow strips, yellowed from its long journey from the tropics. The graceful palms carried by the pricats and used in decorations are the leaves of the sago palm. Many of the sago palms are covered with a green shellac that assures their fresh appearance almost in-definitely. Some of these, too, are im-ported, but large quantities are grown in this country.

It is said that the supply of imported palms of both kinds is so short this year that many of the churches in the smal towns will be unable to have any at all, and that even the larger churches will have to give smaller pieces than has been customary, and in all ways try to eke out a piece all around.

Palm Sanday marks the beginning of Holy Week, the solemnest season of the Christian year. Tomorrow, and all during the week, the services in the churches will be more largely attended than at any other time of the year. The week ends with Easter Surday, second only to Christmas as a joyous feast.

ROOSEVELT OVERBOARD. It appears that Mr. Roosevelt had a ea bath at the Azores.

Ponta Delgada was reached at day-break on Wednesday. But the steamer Finland was occupying the inner berth and it was necessary for the Hamburg on which the ex-president was a passengore to aughor outside the breakwater.
A terrific sea was running, and the passengers were forbidden to land.
Word had been cabled from Horto of Mr. Roosevelt's coming, and preparations had been made to give him an official reception and aguard of honor was drawn up. The sea became so violent that all hope of his coming ashore was abandoned and the troops withdrawn.

drawn up. The sea became so violent that all hope of his coming ashore was abandoned and the troops withdrawn. Not ten minutes later, however a boat awung around the end of the breakwater, and Mr. Roossvelt, in a military overcost, with the stripes of a colonel on the sleeves and a Rough Rider hat, stepped schore. Traversing the cobble-paved marina and crossing the quaint cathedral square, he entered the concathedral square, he entered the cousulate and showed himself for a mo-ment on the balcony, bowing to the cheering crowd below.

In returning the greatest danger was experienced in getting alongside. At a critical and somewhat inopportune moment the ship's band burst forth with "The Sar-Spangled Bauner." Mr. Roosavelt despite the perilous awaying of the boat, rose to his feet and stood and the band of until the masic crased. bare-headed until the music ceased.

With the boat alongside the gangway,
Mr. Rocsevelt started to jump, but hampered by the folds of his overcost, his foot slipped, and he went into the water to his knees, his life possibly being saved by the prompt action and strength of Fourth Officer Heissler and the quartermaster, who caught him
under the arms and lifted him to safety.

As he was seen to slip into the water a gasp of horror ran along the passencertined rail. Mr. Rocsevelt dripping gerlined rail. Mr. Roosevelt dripping with water, made light of the experiparts of Maryland at an early hour yes-triday morning.

Williamsport, Md., experienced an earthquake shock about 2 o'clock yester-day morning. Houses rocked and win-dows rattled and many persons were filled with terror. The disturbance awake a number of people, who distinct-ly felt their houses shake while in their heds. Some ware so hadly frightened beds. Some were so badly frightened that they left their beds and lighted lamps, fearing that they might be killed

Two earthquake shocks were distinctly felt in Winchester at 2:25 o'clock yesterday morning, and residents of the city and county left their beds in terror. People rag out of their houses for t ar the buildings would tumble about their ears. The first shock was quickly fel towed by a second, and there was a loud rumbling and roaring noise, accompanying the shocks. Dr. S. P. Latane, a Winhester physician, says: "I felt two earthquate shocks at 2:25 yesterday morning. They were like the boom of heavy can non fired in quick succession, and were followed by a loud roaring and rambswayed perceptibly. The sky was clouded but there was no rain."

A dispatch from Charlestown, W.
Vs., says: Three estibquake shocks were felt in this section yesterday mora-ing shout 8 o'clock. The shocks, which ollowed each other at intervals of a few minutes, were severe enough to awaken citizens. A picture in the lobby of the Hotel Jefferson was thrown from the wall. Some persons experienced a swaying sensation of their beds. The quake was also felt in Harpers Ferry and viMartin,

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatlam. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard
